

ETHYL CHLORIDE SPRAY AGANESTESIC

MAIN SPECIFICATIONS

- Ethyl chloride in the form of a liquid, clear and colorless, do not contain propellants infirm substance available in the can.
- Epidermal used as local anesthetic through the cooling of the contact area with the skin, causing a rapid relief of pain.
- The spray head ensures a continuous flow focused by which an optimal application of the product is easily achieved.
- In local anesthesia of the skin is applied to areas of skin to be treated at a distance of about 30cm to a thin layer (or film) white is obtained at this point the application should stop to prevent skin burns.

| Code     | Description                  | Selling unit |
|----------|------------------------------|--------------|
| 39056000 | ETHYLE CHLORIDE SPRAY 100 ML | CX. 1        |