

RESUSCITATION BOARD

MAIN SPECIFICATIONS

- Resuscitation board is designed to optimize the RCP maneuvers.
- The anatomical shape allows exact positioning of the patient, keeping the open air passages and at the same time causing the external cardiac massage is more effective.
- The upper surface is structured to reduce the risk of slipping and support the vertebrae.
- The lower surface is made to stabilize the board during resuscitation.
- The handles make it extremely easy to handle and transport, making operations easier as anchorage and transferring patients.
- It is lightweight and resistant to compression because it is made of high density polyethylene, double shell with holes.
- Easy to use and is really convenient to train technicians first aid CPR.
- It is indispensable in the ambulance stretcher during transport of critically ill patients and in all hospital wards, to CPR.
- The monolithic structure allows a rapid disinfection.
- Dimensions: 415 x 70 x H605 mm
- Weight: 1.5kg

Code	Description	Selling unit
39080009	RESUSCITATION BOARD 415 x 90 x H605MM (YELLOW)	CX. 1