

LINOVERA HYPROXYGENATED FATTY ACIDS

MAIN SPECIFICATIONS

- Hyperoxygenated fatty acids solution used in the prevention and treatment of grade I pressure ulcers. Due to the high percentage of linoleic acid, it increases the repairing action.
- The vegetal strata of aloe vera and Asian spark have a greater regenerating protective effect of the skin: Protection against external agents; Improves skin resistance; It repairs the upper epidermis; Restores capillary circulation; Stimulates collagen synthesis; Has a moisturizing and healing effect
- Composition: Hyperoxygenated essential fatty acids (linoleic acid); Tocopherols; Aloe Vera; Asian spark; Perfume.
- Spray Linovera 2 to 3 times a day on the affected area and spread with your fingertips without massaging.

Code	Description	Selling unit
01001010	LINOVERA 30 ML	CX. 1