

ASKINA BARRIER FILM

MAIN SPECIFICATIONS

- Askina Barrier Film is a non-burning, quick-drying, breathable product in spray designed for estomatherapy skin care and wound treatment:
- For prevention of skin lesions caused by friction or exudate.
- Protection of vulnerable areas such as: calcanos, elbows, feet, hips and all areas subject to aggression - from the first signs of blushing.
- Protection of the skin of incontinent patients.
- Skin protection from risk of maceration and excoriations: Peripheral area; Peristomal skin; Catheter attachment areas and drainage devices.
- To maintain the integrity of the newly formed skin protecting it from the beginning of the granulation.
- It forms a barrier film non-irritating.

Code	Description	Selling unit
4002801	ASKINA BARRIER FILM 28ML	CX. 1